

VII. PARLIAMENT SECURITY SERVICE

56. PARLIAMENT SECURITY OFFICE

56.1 The Parliament Security Service of Rajya Sabha look after the security set up in Parliament House Complex. Director (Security), Rajya Sabha Secretariat exercises operational control over Parliament Security Service, Rajya Sabha, and the administrative authority vests with the Rajya Sabha Secretariat. Additional Secretary (Security) of Lok Sabha Secretariat is the overall in-charge of the entire Parliament Security including Parliament Security Service of the two Secretariats, Delhi Police, ITBP, CRPF, etc. Parliament Security Service staff, being totally unarmed performs security duties for safeguarding the historical and prestigious Parliament House Complex, Members and VVIPs.

Over the past two decades, the security of VVIPs and the Parliament House Complex has assumed prime importance. Regular intelligence reports reveal that a grave threat persists with regards to the security of the Parliament House Complex. Keeping in view of this, the main objective of Parliament Security is to provide protection to the human resources [VIPs, staff and visitors] and the material resources within the precincts of the Parliament House Complex.

The main responsibility of Parliament Security Service is to provide and maintain proactive, preventive and protective security measures within the Parliament House Complex, for safeguarding Members of Parliament, visitors and employees. The whole approach revolves around the principles of Access Control based on proper authorization, verification, identification and authentication of human and material resources entering the Parliament House Complex with the help of modern security gadgets. Since the threat perception has been increasing over the years due to manifold growth of various terrorist organizations/ outfits, refinement in their planning, intelligence, actions and surrogated war-fare tactics employed by organizations sponsoring and nourishing terrorists, new security procedures have been introduced into the security management to counter the ever-changing modus operandi of terrorist outfits/ individuals posing threat to the Parliament House Complex.

This avowed objective is achieved in close coordination with various security agencies such as the Delhi Police, CRPF, ITBP, IB, SPG and NSG. The Parliament Security Service acts as the overall coordinating agency. For arranging a fail-proof and user friendly security, the Parliament Security Service maintains proper liaison and effective coordination with these security agencies.

With the passage of time, Parliament Security Service acquired specialization in the field of Identification of Members of Parliament and VIPs. The Parliament Security Service staff also performed security duties outside Parliament House Complex at important national ceremonies / functions such as the Republic Day parade at Rajpath, Independence Day function at Red Fort, At Home functions, Oath taking ceremonies in Rashtrapati Bhavan, functions/ dinners hosted by the Chairman, Rajya Sabha, Prime Minister, Speaker, Lok Sabha, Deputy Chairman, Rajya Sabha at Hyderabad House and other places.

The Parliament Security Service plays an important operational activity during the President election. The Parliament Security Service ensures the collection of the ballot boxes, containing ballot papers of respective state legislature, from the airport. Once the custody of the boxes is taken by the Parliament Security Service, they are safely escorted to the Parliament House with close coordination of the local police and armed guards. The ballot boxes are kept in a designated room, which is guarded round the clock by armed guards. This room is daily opened and sealed in the presence of the Returning Officer. After the completion of the counting and declaration of the elected President, the ballot boxes are duly returned to the Election Commission.

One of the important operational activities of the Parliament Security Service is the show around of the Parliament House Complex to the visitors coming to see the Parliament House during inter-session period. The Security Assistants of the Parliament Security Service are deputed to ensure that the visitors, foreign dignitaries and the delegations are escorted properly and given factual and detailed information on the history of the Parliament, its building and the procedures practiced for conducting the proceedings of the Parliament. For the students, it is designed more or less on the pattern of an educational tour. Visitors are also given a brief about the statues and portraits installed in the complex.

56.2 RESPONSIBILITIES: In the aftermath of the terrorist attack on Parliament House on December 13, 2001, the security arrangements were beefed up in accordance with the decisions of the Joint Parliamentary Committee on Security Matters in Parliament House Complex. All the access points in the Parliament House Complex were streamlined in order to regulate vehicular and pedestrian movement. With the introduction of the hi-tech security gadgets at the Access Control Points, the checking of unauthorized entry has been reassessed and made more effective. The R.F. tag readers have made the identification process more scientific and practical than ever before. It has also controlled the regular vehicular movements inside the Parliament House Complex.

56.3 OPERATIONS-I WING (OPS-I) Besides their normal security operational duties in Parliament House Complex, the Parliament Security Service staff also performed duties at important National functions such as the Republic Day Parade on Rajpath, Flag hoisting on the Independence Day at Red Fort, 'At Home' functions in Rashtrapati Bhavan, at the residence of Chairman, Rajya Sabha, the Prime Minister, the Speaker, the Deputy Chairman and Cabinet Ministers and also at Hyderabad House.

Mock security drills with respect to evacuation, rescue, etc. in accordance with periodic review of Disaster Management & Contingency plans were carried out at regular intervals during the year.

During the year 2011, on the recommendation of Members of Parliament, 42,722 visitors were taken for show-around of the Parliament House by the Parliament Security Service. In all, the security staff regulated a flow of 1,05,161 persons/ visitors except the officials of the Lok Sabha Secretariat, Rajya Sabha Secretariat, Parliamentary Affairs and Allied Services inside the Parliament House Complex during the year.

56.3.1 Floral Tribute Functions: Twenty nine Floral Tribute functions were held to pay homage to the freedom fighters and eminent personalities whose portraits are placed in the Central Hall. On the 14th of April and the 6th of December 2011, Floral Tribute functions were held at the statue of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar.

A function to mark 10th Commemoration Day of sacrifice made by the security personnel on the 13th of December, 2001 terrorist attack on Parliament was held at Martyrs plaque on the 13th of December 2011, which was attended by Hon'ble Vice-President of India & Chairman, Rajya Sabha, Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, Hon'ble Speaker, Lok Sabha, Deputy Chairman, Rajya Sabha, Union Ministers, Members of Parliament, several dignitaries and officials of both the Secretariats.
